WELCOME

During the last 30 years of West London Dancing 'Learn & Improve' dance classes have always been presented at the Greenford Hall with a policy of providing an enjoyable dance experience linked with great value. This is still very much the intention by providing not only a social dance evening in the outstanding main ballroom but also flexible 'Learn & Improve' sessions in the small ballroom. In establishing a new programme and pricing structure we very much encourage regular attendance by offering excellent value and opportunity in special events and holidays.
